Reading & Answering of Questions

- The moderator will read all questions, indicating the question number and, when applicable, designating the chairs eligible to respond.
- No part of the question will be repeated, nor will any additional information be given to the contestants relative to the question.
- If a question was read to COMPLETION, contestants have 10 seconds to buzz in to indicate they want to answer the question.
- If no contestant activates their buzzer within the time (10 seconds), no contestant or team shall lose or gain any points. After the response time has elapsed, the answer will be given, and the next question read.
- The judge(s) may ask the contestant to explain, expand, be more specific, or clarify their answer.
- Based on the contestants answer, points will be awarded or deducted accordingly, correct answers will be given accordingly, the score will be announced, and the next question read.
- If a question is INTERRUPTED by a buzzer being activated DURING the reading of the question, the moderator will immediately cease reading the question. The contestant responding has 10 seconds, after being ACKNOWLEDGED, to begin their answer.
- The first answer(s) given by contestant will be accepted as the official answer, including multiple response questions. Repeating the questions will not be considered the initiation of the answer.
- If the answer given is the same as the expected answer OR implies the same as the expected answer, it will be accepted and points awarded accordingly. If the answer is different than the expected answer, it will be referred to the judge(s) for a decision.
